

General English Exercise

Complete the following sentence using appropriate words or phrases.

1. James went to see his old friend to discover that he had already left.

alone
only hardly

2. The ties that bind us together are so ..... that they can rupture at any moment.

tentative
tenuous
restrictive

3. There was nothing about her reaction to his marriage proposal. She rejected it
.....

surprising, vehemently
interesting, violently unpredictable, abruptly

General English Exercise

4. The directions that he gave us were so that we didn't know which of the two roads to take.

complicated
circuitous
ambiguous

5. It will be difficult for an person to believe that all men are equal irrespective of their caste, race and religion.

emotional liberal religious intolerant

6. I met him only a week before

past
ago

7. She asked me

why are you angry

General English Exercise

why am I angry
why I was angry
why was I angry

8. Despite receiving several warnings, he
..... to office on time.

comes never never comes never come

9. He told his wife that Germany.

he will like to visit
he is liking to visit
he was liking to visit
he would like to visit

10. The rich and the influential can ..... .. even with murder.

get off
get away
get out

General English Exercise

Answers

1. James went to see his old friend only to discover that he had already left.
2. The ties that bind us together are so tenuous that they can rupture at any moment.
(tenuous = very weak)
3. There was nothing surprising about her reaction to his marriage proposal. She rejected it vehemently.
4. The directions that he gave us were so ambiguous that we didn't know which of the two roads to take.
5. It will be difficult for an intolerant person to believe that all men are equal irrespective of their caste, race and religion.
6. I met him only a week ago.
7. She asked me why I was angry.
8. Despite receiving several warnings, he never comes to office on time.
9. He told his wife that he would like to visit Germany.
10. The rich and the influential can get away even with murder.