

General Grammar Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. If you had practiced every day, you
.....

- will win
- will have won
- would have won

2. If I had I could buy a car.

- enough money
- money enough
- Either could be used here

3. He was to lend me 100 dollars.

- generous enough
- enough generous
- Either could be used here

4. Don't come tomorrow. I would rather you
..... on Sunday.

- come

General Grammar Exercise

will come had come came

5. Nothing happened,

did they did that did it

6. the film, I don't want to read the book.

Seen
Seeing
Having seen

7. Everything is all right,

is it is that isn't it isn't that

General Grammar Exercise

8. You had better saying thank-you for things.

- start
- to start
- started

9. When we were kids, my uncle us out on his bike all round the countryside.

- would take
- used to take
- Either could be used here

10. You were foolish to try climbing up there. You yourself.

- can kill
- could kill
- could have killed

11. I am not accustomed to personal information to strangers.

- give

General Grammar Exercise

giving

Either could be used here

12. I slowly began what she was going through.

to understand

understanding

Either could be used here

Answers

1. If you had practiced every day, you would have won.
2. If I had enough money I could buy a car.
3. He was generous enough to lend me 100 dollars.
4. Don't come tomorrow. I would rather you came on Sunday.
5. Nothing happened, did it?
6. Having seen the film, I don't want to read the book.
7. Everything is all right, isn't it?
8. You had better start saying thank-you for things.
9. When we were kids, my uncle would take / used to take us out on his bike all round the countryside.
10. You were foolish to try climbing up there. You could have killed yourself.
11. I am not accustomed to give / giving personal information to strangers.
12. I slowly began to understand what she was going through.