

General Grammar Exercise

Complete the following sentences.

1. I hope he the plane tickets.

- didn't forget
- doesn't forget
- won't forget

2. The forest was so dense we see through the trees.

- can't
- couldn't

3. You will have to pay a fine if you to keep the appointment.

- fail
- will fail
- failed

4. She forfeited the match when she to play.

- refused

General Grammar Exercise

would refuse has refused

5. He brought a proposition that we all liked.

forth
fourth

6. He is quite close to several members of the estate.

forth
fourth

7. The lawyer was a police officer.

formally formerly former

8. She since she dropped the skillet on her foot.

General Grammar Exercise

was limping

has been limping

is limping

9. We caught only a glimpse of the royal cavalcade.

flitting fleeting fleating

10. I love Sundays!

How

How do

11. The train at half past six.

will leave is leaving leaves

12. Red color does not me.

fit

General Grammar Exercise

suit

Either could be used here

Answers

1. I hope he doesn't forget the plane tickets.
2. The forest was so dense we couldn't see through the trees.
3. You will have to pay a fine if you fail to keep the appointment.
4. She forfeited the match when she refused to play.
5. He brought forth a proposition that we all liked.
6. He is quite close to several members of the fourth estate.
7. The lawyer was formerly a police officer.
8. She has been limping since she dropped the skillet on her foot.
9. We caught only a fleeting glimpse of the royal cavalcade.
10. How I love Sundays!
11. The train leaves at half past six.
12. Red color does not suit me.