Fill in the blanks.

1. Everything ................................ she said is true.
   - that
   - what
   - which

2. Nobody .................................. there to help him.
   - was
   - were

3. Somebody wanted a drink, ................................?
   - did somebody
4. Everyone of them ...................................... arrived.

5. The thing .......................................... happened next horrified me.
6. .......................................... she did cannot be justified.

What
That
Which

7. He is .................................. the best player in the team.

simple simply

8. He ...................................... to office but he should be here soon.

has been has gone
9. I have never .................................... to your country.

- gone
- been

10. Winston Churchill is regarded ....................................... one of the best statesmen ever.

- as
- to be
- as to be

11. It is considered ........................................ one of the best malls in town.

- as
General Grammar Exercise

12. Considered ........................................ a whole, the show was a success.

Answers
1. Everything that she said is true.
2. Nobody was there to help him.
3. Somebody wanted a drink, didn’t they?
4. Everyone of them has arrived.
5. The thing that happened next horrified me.
General Grammar Exercise

6. What she did cannot be justified.

7. He is simply the best player in the team.

8. He has gone to office but he should be here soon.

9. I have never been to your country.

10. Winston Churchill is regarded as one of the best statesmen ever.

11. It is considered as / to be one of the best malls in town.

12. Considered as a whole, the show was a success.