

Gerund or infinitive - grammar exercise

Some verbs are followed by infinitives while others are followed by gerunds. There are also some verbs that are followed by both gerunds and infinitives.

Complete the following sentences using the appropriate verb form. Each question has only one correct answer.

1. I have soon.

to go
going

2. They refused the matter any further.

to discuss discussing

3. He threatened me if I didn't give him the key.

to shoot
shooting

4. I promise you tomorrow.

visiting

Gerund or infinitive - grammar exercise

to visit

5. He intends a business.

to start starting

6. The teacher taught the children
the truth.

to tell telling

7. Jack told me dressed in ten minutes.

to get getting

8. Susie wishes music.

to learn
learning

Gerund or infinitive - grammar exercise

9. He learned English in six months.

to speak
speaking

10. I dared him across the river.

jumping
to jump

Answers

1. I have to go soon.
2. They refused to discuss the matter any further.
3. He threatened to shoot me if I didn't give him the key.
4. I promise to visit you tomorrow.
5. He intends to start a business.
6. The teacher taught the children to tell the truth.
7. Jack told me to get dressed in ten minutes.

Gerund or infinitive - grammar exercise

8. Susie wishes to learn music.

9. He learned to speak English in six months.

10. I dared him to jump across the river.