

Gerund vs. Infinitive

Fill in the blanks with the appropriate form of the verb.

1. I am thinking a business.

to start

of starting

2. I stopped her my room.

to enter

from entering

3. They encouraged me again.

to try

trying

from trying

Gerund vs. Infinitive

4. I am tired to advice.

to listen

of listening

5. I saw them in the garden.

Please select 2 correct answers

play

playing

to play

6. She was told to quit

quitting

Gerund vs. Infinitive

of quitting

7. I was made the whole story.

repeat

to repeat

of repeating

8. Harsh punishments may deter potential offenders a crime.

to commit

from committing

9. I was not allowed

Gerund vs. Infinitive

to go from going

go

10. The illness prohibited her blood.

to donate

from donating

11. I was advised harder.

to work

working to working

Gerund vs. Infinitive

12. We could not restrain him
..... US.

from attacking

to attack

from attack

Answers

I am thinking of starting a business.

I stopped her from entering my room.

They encouraged me to try again.

I am tired of listening to advice.

I saw them playing / play in the garden.

She was told to quit.

I was made to repeat the whole story.

Harsh punishments may deter potential offenders from committing a crime.

I was not allowed to go.

The illness prohibited her from donating blood.

I was advised to work harder.

We could not restrain him from attacking us.