Gerund vs. Infinitive

Fill in the blanks with a gerund or infinitive.

1. We stopped .................................. a drink.

   to have having Either could be used here

2. He stopped .................................. when he developed liver trouble.

   to drink drinking
   Either could be used here

3. He started .................................. at thirteen.

   to work
Gerund vs. Infinitive

4. I stopped .................................. them at school.

5. I remember .................................. him at the bus stop.

6. Remember ............................... the check before Friday.
Gerund vs. Infinitive

to post

7. Did you remember .................................. the door when you left?

locking to lock

8. I don't ever remember ................................ to her.

to talk talking

9. I regret .................................. school at fifteen.

to leave Gerund vs. Infinitive

leaving

10. I regret ........................................ you that you have lost your job.

informing to inform

11. I would like ........................................ this scenery.

painting

to paint

12. I like ........................................

to paint
Gerund vs. Infinitive

painting

Either could be used here

Answers

We stopped to have a drink.
He stopped drinking when he developed liver trouble.
He started working at thirteen.
I stopped to drop them at school.
I remember meeting him at the bus stop.
Remember to post the check before Friday.
Did you remember to lock the door when you left?
I don’t remember ever talking to her.
I regret leaving school at fifteen.
I regret to inform you that you have lost your job.
I would like to paint this scenery.
I like painting.