Fill in the blanks with a gerund or infinitive.

1. I requested them ....................... me.
   helping to help

2. You ought ......................... a doctor.
   consult to consult

3. He didn't dare ........................... up to his bully.
   stand
   to stand standing

© www.englishgrammar.org
Gerund vs. Infinitive

4. I regret ......................... that job.

quit

to quit

quitting

5. The teacher advised the students
......................... harder.

study

to study studying

6. She works hard ......................... a living.

earn

to earn

© www.englishgrammar.org
7. I was disappointed ....................................... the news.

8. They warmed him ........................................ careful.

9. She aspires .............................................. a doctor.
Gerund vs. Infinitive

be

to be being

10. He longs ......................... his family.

see to see seeing

11. She sells cookies ....................... a living.

earn

to earn

earning Gerund vs. Infinitive

12. I don't remember ......................... him before.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>to meet</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>meet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>meeting</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answers

I requested them to help me.
You ought to consult a doctor.
He didn’t dare to stand up to his bully.
I regret quitting that job.
The teacher advised the students to study harder.
She works hard to earn a living.
I was disappointed to hear the news.
They warmed him to be careful.
She aspires to be a doctor.
He longs to see his family.
She sells cookies to earn a living.
I don’t remember meeting him before.