

Gerund vs. Infinitive Exercise

Fill in the blanks with a gerund or infinitive.

1. I am confident of the race.

winning

to win

2. She insisted on with me.

coming

to come

3. You have no moral right
me.

questioning

to question

Gerund vs. Infinitive Exercise

4. It is wrong people.

judging

to judge

5. I hope good marks.

to get

getting

6. He is eager to leave

leaving

7. They need someone care of their dogs when they are away.

Gerund vs. Infinitive Exercise

taking

to take

8. I warned him careful.

being

to be

9. I expect my brother at six.

calling

to call

10. She longs her family.

meeting

Gerund vs. Infinitive Exercise

to meet

11. I enjoy in the moonshine.

walking

to walk

12. I was surprised him there.

finding

to find

Answers

I am confident of winning the race.

She insisted on coming with me.

You have no moral right to question me.

It is wrong to judge people.

Gerund vs. Infinitive Exercise

I hope to get good marks.

He is eager to leave.

They need someone to take care of their dogs when they are away.

I warned him to be careful.

I expect my brother to call at six.

She longs to meet her family.

I enjoy walking in the moonshine.

I was surprised to find him there.