

Grammar exercise

Complete the following sentences using a word or phrase from the given options.

1. If I were you, I be careful with the choice of my words.

will would should

2. James is the efficient of the two assistants we employed last month.

more most least

3. The mother of the dead child was overwhelmed grief.

by
of
with

4. I congratulate you your wonderful achievement.

Grammar exercise

Please select 2 correct answers

on for over

5. She was so fastidious that she liked of the three designs I submitted.

both either neither none

6. a very long time, this city has been prosperous.

For Since
From

7. You won't have much difficulty making friends in Italy.

at

Grammar exercise

with in

8. Not many people are interested
..... algebra.

at
with in

9. I was sorry when Alice moved to France. We
..... good friends since our school days.

are were have been had been

10. We walked the edge of the valley.

Please select 2 correct answers

till as far as

Grammar exercise

up to

Answers

1. If I were you, I would be careful with the choice of my words.
2. James is the more efficient of the two assistants we employed last month.
3. The mother of the dead child was overwhelmed with grief.
4. I congratulate you on/for your wonderful achievement. (In American English, for is also possible here. British speakers usually use on.)
5. She was so fastidious that she liked none of the three designs I submitted.
6. For a very long time, this city has been prosperous.
7. You won't have much difficulty in making friends in Italy.
8. Not many people are interested in algebra.
9. I was sorry when Alice moved to France. We had been good friends since our school days.
10. We walked as far as / up to the edge of the valley.