

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate preposition.

1. Did you hear the explosion at the mall?

about
of

2. That song reminds me my childhood.

off
of

3. She complained his rude behavior.

about
off
over

4. They took him to hospital when he complained chest pain and uneasiness.

of
on

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

over

5. He warned me dire consequences.

off
of

6. Have you heard him?

on
of

7. What did you think his latest film?

of
off

8. We haven't decided but we are thinking moving to a bigger home.

about
off

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

9. I wouldn't dream doing something like that.

about
of

10. I had never thought it before.

on
of

Answers

1. Did you hear about the explosion at the mall?
2. That song reminds me of my childhood.
3. She complained about his rude behavior.
4. They took him to hospital when he complained of chest pain and uneasiness.
5. He warned me of dire consequences.
6. Have you heard of him?
7. What did you think of his latest film?

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

8. We haven't decided but we are thinking about moving to a bigger home.

9. I wouldn't dream of doing something like that.

10. I had never thought of it before.