

Because And Because Of Grammar Exercise

Fill in the blanks with because or because of.

1. We got into trouble you.

because
because of

2. We cancelled the trip bad weather.

because
because of

3. We hurried indoors it was raining.

because
because of

4. She passed the test her teacher.

because of
because

Because And Because Of Grammar Exercise

5. She passed the test she had a good teacher.

- because
- because of

6. I couldn't arrive on time I had missed the train.

- because
- because of

7. He can't walk arthritis.

- because
- because of

8. She didn't pass the test she hadn't studied well.

- because
- because of

Because And Because Of Grammar Exercise

9. Thousands of people lost their jobs
..... the recession.

because
because of

10. I couldn't understand him his strange accent.

because
because of

11. The government banned that movie
..... the public opinion was against it.

because
because of

12. He met with an accident he was driving too fast.

because
because of

Because And Because Of Grammar Exercise

Answers

1. We got into trouble because of you.
2. We cancelled the trip because of bad weather.
3. We hurried indoors because it was raining.
4. She passed the test because of her teacher.
5. She passed the test because she had a good teacher.
6. I couldn't arrive on time because I missed the train.
7. He can't walk because of arthritis.
8. She didn't pass the test because she hadn't studied well.
9. Thousands of people lost their jobs because of the recession.
10. I couldn't understand him because of his strange accent.
11. The government banned that movie because the public opinion was against it.
12. He met with an accident because he was driving too fast.