

Later and latter: grammar exercise

These words are often confused. Later is the comparative form of late. It refers to time. It is the opposite of earlier. Latter refers to position. It is the opposite of former.

We will talk to you later.

The latter part of the film was a bit boring. (= The second part of the film was a bit boring.)

Test your understanding of these adjectives with this grammar test.

Question 1

1. Most of us liked the suggestion.

later

latter

2. The former part of the film is more interesting than the part.

later

latter

3. You are than I expected.

later

latter

Later and latter: grammar exercise

4. Bye! See you

later
latter

5. She was happy when she got the job, but six months she was fired.

later
latter

6. He said that he would finish the job
.....

later
latter

7. I am not hungry now. I will have lunch
.....

later
latter

Later and latter: grammar exercise

Answers

1. Most of us liked the latter suggestion.
2. The former part of the film is more interesting than the latter part.
3. You are later than I expected.
4. Bye! See you later.
5. She was happy when she got a job but six months later she was fired.
6. He said that he would finish the job later.
7. I am not hungry now. I will have lunch later.