

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

Fill in the blanks.

1. Sam James has agreed to come.

and

as well

as well as

2. being rich and famous, she is very humble.

Though

However

Despite

3. We played to the best of our ability;, we could not win.

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

though

however

despite

4. You should not marry you are financially independent.

until

unless

Either could be used here

5. You must work starve.

and

but

or

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

6. She ought to get the job
she is the most suitable candidate.

for

because

Either could be used here

7. he is not educated, he is industrious.

As

Though

If

8. it was a hot day, I felt lethargic.

Please select 2 correct answers

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

As

For

Since

9. you are free tomorrow, let's catch up over a coffee.

If

Whether

Unless

10. I wasn't feeling well, I called in sick.

hence

so

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

because

11. This is the park we used to meet.

there

where

here

12. It hasn't rained months.

for

in

Either could be used here

Grammar Exercise (Gap Filling)

Answers

Sam as well as James has agreed to come.

Despite being rich and famous, she is very humble.

We played to the best of our ability; however, we could not win.

You should not marry until / unless you are financially independent.

You must work or starve.

She ought to get the job for / because she is the most suitable candidate.

Though he is not educated, he is industrious.

As it was a hot day, I felt lethargic.

If you are free tomorrow, let's catch up over a coffee.

I wasn't feeling well, so I called in sick.

This is the park where we used to meet.

It hasn't rained for / in months.