

Grammar Review Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. I met her in Ireland

- six months before
- before six months
- six months ago

2. The two sisters are very much
.....

- like
- alike
- Either could be used here

3. Have you been here?

- ago
- before
- Either could be used here

4. the people were singing and dancing.

- All
- All of

Grammar Review Exercise

Either could be used here

5. I would quite like to go out, it is a bit late.

although

though

Either could be used here

6. 'Lovely day.' 'Yes. Bit warm,'

although

though

Either could be used here

7. It is important that she told.

be

should be

Either could be used here

8. She looks she is going to cry.

Grammar Review Exercise

like

as if

Either could be used here

9. Those candies were wonderful. Could I have
..... one?

other

another

more

10. Those peas were delicious. Could I have
.....?

another

other

some more

11. I didn't like the movies.

any

any of

Either could be used here

Grammar Review Exercise

12. Prices keep

rising

arising

Either could be used here

Answers

1. I met her in Ireland six months ago.
2. The two sisters are very much alike.
3. Have you been here before?
4. All / all of the people were singing and dancing.
5. I would quite like to go out, though / although it is a bit late.
6. 'Lovely day.' 'Yes. Bit warm, though.'
7. It is important that she be / should be told.
8. She looks as if / like she is going to cry.
9. Those candies were wonderful. Could I have another one?
10. Those peas were delicious. Could I have some more?
11. I didn't like any of the movies.
12. Prices keep rising.