Idioms Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. She is oily .................... but she does not have a kind heart.
   - skinned
   - tongued

2. ‘Can I borrow some milk?’ ‘Why not? We have ...................... and some to spare.’
   - a lot
   - enough
   - much

3. Don’t depend on him. He is a man of ..........................
   - feather
4. We were already going through a financial crisis so dad's illness was a bolt from the .................

5. Her refusal to answer his phone calls was a red rag to the .......................
6. After wasting two hours searching for the cat, we realized we were on a wild ......................... chase.

cat

goose

crow

7. When the business failed, years of hard work went up in ...........................

vain

smoke

smog

8. He is every .............................. a gentleman.

ounce
9. He thinks he is highly influential but he is actually a big ................. in a small pond.

turtle

frog

fish

10. Giving advice to this worthless fellow is like casting pearls before a ...............
Idioms Exercise

11. He is a tough guy and will weather any …………………

tornado hurricane storm

Answers

1. She is oily tongued but she does not have a kind heart.

2. 'Can I borrow some milk?' ‘Why not? We have enough and some to spare.’

3. Don’t depend on him. He is a man of straw.

4. We were already going through a financial crisis so dad’s illness was a bolt from the blue.

5. Her refusal to answer his phone calls was a red rag to the bull.

6. After wasting two hours searching for the cat, we realized we were on a wild goose chase.
Idioms Exercise

7. When the business failed, years of hard work went up in smoke.

8. He is every inch a gentleman.

9. He thinks he is highly influential but he is actually a big fish in a small pond.

10. Giving advice to this worthless fellow is like casting pearls before a swine.

11. He is a tough guy and will weather any storm.