Idioms Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. His parents bail him ............................... whenever he is in trouble.

   up

   off

   out

2. We cannot sell things ............................... a loss.

   with

   at

   for

3. The new promotional campaign gave much ............................... for the buck.
Idioms Exercise

4. Few people have the luxury of working ................................ hours these days.

banker's

baker's

writer's

5. He had no one to ............................................. him when he launched his business.

bail

bankroll
Idioms Exercise

6. He is a big ....................................... in his company.

wheel

gun

cheese

All of the above

7. If we had done our homework, we wouldn't have .............................. that deal.

burst

blown
Idioms Exercise

8. When the ........................................... fell out of the property market, many builders had to cancel projects.

   top
   bottom
   head

10. Before investing in a company, you should examine its ..........................................

   top line
   bottom line
   margin

10. It took us two years to break ..........................................

   up
Idioms Exercise

11. The large company is buying ................................ several small companies.

off

out

up

12. The deal is almost fixed. Now we only have to sign on the ......................... line.

dotted

blank

raised Idioms Exercise

Answers

1. His parents bail him out whenever he is in trouble.

2. We cannot sell things at a loss.

3. The new promotional campaign gave much bang for the buck.

4. Few people have the luxury of working banker’s hours these days.

5. He had no one to bankroll him when he launched his business.

6. He is a big wheel / gun / cheese in his company.

7. If we had done our homework, we wouldn’t have blown that deal.

8. When the bottom falls out of the property market, many builders had to cancel projects.

9. Before investing in a company, you should examine its bottom line.

10. It took us two years to break even.

11. The large company is buying out several small companies.

12. The deal is almost fixed. Now we only have to sign on the dotted line.