In The End vs. At The End

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate preposition.

1. The train left ...................... time.

   on

   in

2. He is never ...................... time.

   in

   on

3. I am paid ...................... the end of the month.

   in

   at

   on
In The End vs. At The End

4. I almost crashed into the car in front. I managed to stop just ......................... time.

- on
- in
- at

5. Everyone applauded ..................... the end of the show.

- in
- at
- on

6. We couldn’t decide where to go for our holidays. ......................... the end we didn’t go anywhere.
In The End vs. At The End

7. He has ....................... last found a good job.

at
in the
at the

8. The hero and the heroine got married ....................... the end.

at
in
on
9. ……………………… first we didn’t get on very well.

At
In

10. She was tired of her job. ……………………… the end she resigned.

In
At
On

11. Someone saved the boy just ……………………… time.

In
On
In The End vs. At The End

12. They are leaving ........................... the end of the month.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>at</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>in</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answers

The train left on time.
He is never on time.
I am paid at the end of the month.
I almost crashed into the car in front. I managed to stop just in time.
Everyone applauded at the end of the show.
We couldn’t decide where to go for our holidays. In the end we didn’t go anywhere.
He has at last found a good job.
The hero and the heroine got married in the end.
At first we didn’t get on very well.
She was tired of her job. In the end she resigned.
Someone saved the boy just in time.
They are leaving at the end of the month.