Fill in the blanks with a gerund or infinitive.

1. Please allow me ..................... you a drink.
   buying to buy

2. I don't want .......................
   to quit
   quitting

3. I remember ....................... him there.
   meeting
   to meet Infinitive vs. Ing Form

4. She doesn’t show any interest ................. a job.

finding to find

5. It takes a lot of effort ...................... a second language.

to learn

learning

6. I am waiting ....................... from them.

hearing

to hear
7. She does not enjoy .................. around strangers.

being

to be

8. Who told you ....................... this?

to do

doing

Either could be used here

9. There appears ...................... a problem with the motor.

to be

being
10. I can’t seem .................... him understand.

Either could be used here

making

to make

Either could be used here

11. He spent years ...................... for his sick mother.

caring

to care

Either could be used here

12. I couldn’t help ...................... what you said.
Infinitive vs. Ing Form

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Infinitive</th>
<th>Ing Form</th>
<th>Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>to overhear</td>
<td>overhearing</td>
<td>Either could be used here</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Answers

1. Please allow me to buy you a drink.
2. I don’t want to quit.
3. I remember meeting him there.
4. She doesn’t show any interest to find a job.
5. It takes a lot of effort to learn a second language.
6. I am waiting to hear from them.
7. She does not enjoy being around strangers.
8. Who told you to do this?
9. There appears to be a problem with the motor.
10. I can’t seem to make him understand.
Infinitive vs. Ing Form

11. He spent years caring for his sick mother.

12. I couldn’t help overhearing what you said.