

Intermediate Grammar Exercise

This grammar exercise is aimed at intermediate level students. It tests your understanding of grammar structures and sentence patterns.

1. They the Emperor's body away on a stretcher.

bore borne bored

2. Thousands of children blind every year.

are born
are borne borne

3. I want to get married but I have to find a job.

Please select 2 correct answers

before before that first

Intermediate Grammar Exercise

4. I will phone before I

- arrive
- will arrive
- would arrive

5. Where are the mangoes?

- other
- others
- another

6. He looked at me strange.

- real
- really
- Either could be used here

7. I wasn't to enter the house.

- allowed
- let
- Either could be used here

Intermediate Grammar Exercise

8. My dog understands everything – he is ..... human.

almost nearly

Either could be used here

9. I met Sally in Germany

three years before

three years ago

before three years

10. The dog was barking

all night

all the night

the all night

11. I would have been in real trouble your help.

but for

but except

Intermediate Grammar Exercise

12. My daughter is not interested in anything but

.....

read reading to read

Answers

1. They bore the Emperor's body away on a stretcher.
2. Thousands of children are born blind every year.
3. I want to get married but before that / first I have to find a job.
4. I will phone before I arrive.
5. Where are the other mangoes?
6. He looked at me real / really strange.
7. I wasn't allowed to enter the house.
8. My dog understands everything - he is almost human.
9. I met Sally in Germany three years ago.
10. The dog was barking all night.
11. I would have been in real trouble but for your help.
12. My daughter is not interested in anything but reading.