Fill in the blanks.

1. I think we should buy ……………………… car.

   - other
   - an other
   - another

2. You never think of ………………………

   - other
   - another
   - others

3. ……………………………… they refuse to admit it, their marriage is on the verge of collapse.

   - Although
4. Stop fooling …………………………. We are already late.

about around
Either could be used here

5. I will love her as long as I …………………………….

live
will live

6. We are painting the house …………………………….
7. If we want to get there by evening, we ................. hurry.

have better better had better

8. She was brought ......................... by her maternal grandmother.

off
Intermediate Level Grammar Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>up</th>
<th>on</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

9. There is something .......................... the bed.

| under | underneath |

Either could be used here

10. You cannot but ............................ her courage.

| admire | admiring | to admire |

© www.englishgrammar.org
Intermediate Level Grammar Exercise

11. How ……………………………. money do you earn in a month?

much

many

12. How …………………………… sisters do you have?

many

much

Answers

1. I think we should buy another car.

2. You never think of others.

3. Although they refuse to admit it, their marriage is on the verge of collapse.

4. Stop fooling around / above. We are already late.

5. I will love her as long as I live.
Intermediate Level Grammar Exercise

6. We are painting the walls at Easter.

7. If we want to get there by evening, we had better hurry.

8. She was brought up by her maternal grandmother.

9. There is something under / underneath the bed.

10. You cannot but admire her courage.

11. How much money do you earn in a month?

12. How many sisters do you have?