

Intermediate Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks

1. He is so that no one knew whether he enjoyed the party or not.

garrulous
loquacious taciturn

2. He his brothers out of their inheritance.

flummoxed
swapped swindled

3. He had a outlook on life.

sagacious
salacious
sanguine

4. Regular exercise is sagacious

salubrious

Intermediate Vocabulary Exercise

deleterious

5. We pray that the court will reach a decision.

sanctimonious

sacrilegious

sagacious

6. He was a tyrant.

ruthless

lenient

remorseful

7. He on the courses of action open to him.

rummaged

collaborated

ruminated

8. He is so that his troubles never seem to get him down.

Intermediate Vocabulary Exercise

resilient flaccid
preposterous

9. Just when I thought he had recovered, he suffered a relapse

remission

10. Our relationship is based on respect.

equivocal
unilateral reciprocal

11. The youth needed more understanding teachers.

redundant
recalcitrant compliant

Intermediate Vocabulary Exercise

12. A victim of injustice is bound to be full of

.....

rupture

rancor

amity

Answers

1. He is so taciturn that no one knew whether he enjoyed the party or not.
2. He swindled his brothers out of their inheritance.
3. He had a sanguine outlook on life.
4. Regular exercise is salubrious.
5. We pray that the court will reach a sagacious decision.
6. He was a ruthless tyrant.
7. He ruminated on the courses of action open to him.
8. He is so resilient that his troubles never seem to get him down.
9. Just when I thought he had recovered, he suffered a relapse.
10. Our relationship is based on reciprocal respect.
11. The recalcitrant youth needed more understanding teachers.
12. A victim of injustice is bound to be full of rancor.