Irregular Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. They .................................. him to within an inch of his life.

   beat beated
   bet

2. The welder ............................... to his work with determination.

   bended
   bent bend

3. Millions of dollars were ............................. on the Kentucky Derby last year.
Irregular Verbs Exercise

4. The explosion …………………………….. the bridge to smithereens.

blowed
blew blown

5. Last winter, the water pipes …………………………….. in the cold winter.

bursted
burst bursed
Irregular Verbs Exercise

6. The kids .................................. a tunnel in the sand.

digged

dig dug

7. I have ..................................... the drapes.

hang hung

hanged

8. The terrorist was ................................ at dawn.

hung

hanged
Irregular Verbs Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>hunged</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

9. They all ......................... when the king entered.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>knelt</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>kneeled</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Either could be used here

10. What happened to those ten pounds I ......................... you?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>lended</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>lent</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

11. I must be ......................... weight.
Irregular Verbs Exercise

loosing

losing

12. I ................................................................ down on the couch yesterday.

lie

lay lain

Answers

1. They beat him to within an inch of his life.

2. The welder bent to his work with determination.

3. Millions of dollars were bet on the Kentucky Derby last year.

4. The explosion blew the bridge to smithereens.
Irregular Verbs Exercise

5. Last winter, the water pipes burst in the cold winter.

6. The kids dug a tunnel in the sand.

7. I have hung the drapes.

8. The terrorist was hanged at dawn.

9. They all knelt / kneeled when the king entered.

10. What happened to those ten pounds I lent you?

11. I must be losing weight.

12. I lay down on the couch yesterday.