

Conjunctions are words used to join clauses together. Combine the following sentences using an appropriate conjunction.

1. She is pretty intelligent.

- as well
- as well as
- both

2. He is greedy dishonest.

- as well as
- as well
- both

3. God made small things
..... great things.

- as well as
- as well
- both

4. Neither Martin
his father is tall.

or nor

5. She is honest nor hard working.

neither nor either

6. they gave her the best treatment, they could not save her.

Although
However
In spite of

7. she had the qualifications, she did not get the job.

Although
However
In spite of

8. He was ill he attended the meeting.

but though however

9. the lawyer defended his client very well, he lost the case.

Though
However
In spite of

10. he is not educated, he possesses practical wisdom.

Though
However
In spite of

Answers

1. She is pretty as well as intelligent.
2. He is greedy as well as dishonest.

Join the sentences with a conjunction

3. God made small things as well as great things.

4. Neither Martin nor his father is tall.

5. She is neither honest nor hard working.

6. Although / though they gave her the best treatment, they could not save her.

7. Although / though she had the qualifications, she did not get the job.

8. He was ill but he attended the meeting. / Though he was ill he attended the meeting.

9. Though / although the lawyer defended his client very well, he lost the case.

10. Though he is not educated, he possesses practical wisdom. / He is not educated but he possesses practical wisdom.