

Mixed Conditional Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form. This grammar exercise tests your understanding of conditional verb forms.

1. If I were you, I this.

- won't do
- wouldn't do
- wouldn't have done

2. If you red and green, you will get yellow.

- mix
- will mix
- would mix

3. Unless you smoking, you will get cancer.

- quit
- don't quit
- won't quit

4. If you your ways, you will land in serious trouble.

Mixed Conditional Exercise

not mend mend
don't mend

5. If you had called me, I come immediately.

will would would have

6. If you start now, you there on time.

will reach would reach would have reached

7. If I learned electronics at college, I an engineer.

can become could become could have become

Mixed Conditional Exercise

8. Unless you stop drinking, you
..... liver trouble.

will develop

will not develop

9. If you see him, him to visit me?

will you ask

would you ask

would you have asked

10. If you into James, tell him that I am getting married.

run

should run

Either could be used here

11. If he late, we will have to leave without him.

is should be

Either could be used here

Mixed Conditional Exercise

12. What would you do if you to lose your job?

are were had been

Answers

1. If I were you, I wouldn't do this.
2. If you mix red and green, you will get yellow.
3. Unless you quit smoking, you will get cancer.
4. If you don't mend your ways, you will land in serious trouble.
5. If you had called me, I would have come immediately.
6. If you start now, you will reach there on time.
7. If I learned electronics at college, I could become an engineer.
8. Unless you stop drinking, you will develop liver trouble.
9. If you see him, will you ask him to visit me?
10. If you run / should run into James, tell him that I am getting married.
11. If he is / should be late, we will have to leave without him.
12. What would you do if you were to lose your job?