

Mixed Conditionals Exercise

This grammar exercise tests your understanding of conditional sentences. Conditional clauses express a condition – something that must happen first so that something else can happen.

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form.

1. If I don't drink tea in the morning, I ..... sleepy.

Please select 2 correct answers

- feel
- will feel
- would feel
- would have felt

2. If she arrived, we ..... her with open arms.

- will receive
- would receive
- would have received

3. I ..... you if you say that word again.

- will beat
- would beat
- would have beaten

Mixed Conditionals Exercise

4. If I had been there, I ..... you.

- will help
- would help
- would have helped

5. If I were you, I ..... this.

- won't buy
- wouldn't buy
- wouldn't have bought

6. If I had time, I ..... dinner.

- will cook
- would cook
- would have cooked

7. I would handle the situation differently, if I ..... angry.

- am't
- weren't
- hadn't been

Mixed Conditionals Exercise

8. If you heat ice, it .....

- melt
- melts
- will melt
- would melt

9. If you had tried harder, you .....

- will succeed
- would succeed
- would have succeeded

10. If you try hard enough, you .....

- will win
- would win
- would have won

11. If she ..... now, we can have dinner together.

- arrives
- arrived
- would arrive

Mixed Conditionals Exercise

12. If you ..... there, you could meet him.

go
went had gone

Answers

1. If I don't drink tea in the morning, I feel / will feel sleepy.
2. If she arrived, we would receive her with open arms.
3. I will beat you if you say that word again.
4. If I had been there, I would have helped you.
5. If I were you, I wouldn't buy this.
6. If I had time, I would cook dinner.
7. I would handle the situation differently, if I weren't angry.
8. If you heat ice, it melts.
9. If you had tried harder, you would have succeeded.
10. If you try hard enough, you will succeed.
11. If she arrives now, we can have dinner together.
12. If you went there, you could meet him.