Mixed Conditionals Exercise

This grammar exercise tests your understanding of conditional sentences. Conditional clauses express a condition – something that must happen first so that something else can happen.

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form.

1. If I don't drink tea in the morning, I ................................ sleepy.

Please select 2 correct answers

feel will feel
would feel
would have felt

2. If she arrived, we .............................. her with open arms.

will receive
would receive
would have received

3. I .............................. you if you say that word again.

will beat
would beat
would have beaten
Mixed Conditionals Exercise

4. If I had been there, I ........................................ you.

will help
would help
would have helped

5. If I were you, I ................................. this.

won't buy
wouldn't buy
wouldn't have bought

6. If I had time, I ......................... dinner.

will cook
would cook
would have cooked

7. I would handle the situation differently, if I .............................. angry.

am't weren't hadn't been Mixed Conditionals Exercise

8. If you heat ice, it ................................

melt
melts
will melt
would melt

9. If you had tried harder, you .............................

will succeed
would succeed
would have succeeded

10. If you try hard enough, you ..........................

will win
would win
would have won

11. If she ................................ now, we can have dinner together.

arrives
arrived
would arrive
Mixed Conditionals Exercise

12. If you ......................... there, you could meet him.

Answers

1. If I don’t drink tea in the morning, I feel / will feel sleepy.
2. If she arrived, we would receive her with open arms.
3. I will beat you if you say that word again.
4. If I had been there, I would have helped you.
5. If I were you, I wouldn’t buy this.
6. If I had time, I would cook dinner.
7. I would handle the situation differently, if I weren’t angry.
8. If you heat ice, it melts.
9. If you had tried harder, you would have succeeded.
10. If you try hard enough, you will succeed.

11. If she arrives now, we can have dinner together.
12. If you went there, you could meet him.