

Modals Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate modal auxiliary verb.

1. .... you lend me your pen?

Can

May

Shall

2. She ..... arrive anytime soon.

may

can

shall

3. You ..... come whenever you want.

can

Modals Exercise

will

would

4. I ..... return your book tomorrow.

will

would

could

5. You ..... apply for that job.

should

shall

might

Modals Exercise

6. You ..... go now.

may

will

shall

7. I ..... allow you to go.

won't wouldn't

8. If you are busy now, I ..... come tomorrow.

will

would

could

Modals Exercise

9. We ..... be in trouble, if I lose my job.

will

can

would

10. He said that he ..... come.

cannot

would not

could not

11. An elephant ..... eat a lot of food.

will

Modals Exercise

can

may

12. Since elephants love sugarcane, a trainer ..... find it easy to train them with sugarcane.

may

will

can

Answers

Can you lend me your pen?

She may arrive anytime soon.

You can come whenever you want.

I will return your book tomorrow.

You should apply for that job.

You may go now.

I won't allow you to go.

If you are busy now, I will come tomorrow.

Modals Exercise

We will be in trouble, if I lose my job.

He said that he would not come.

An elephant can eat a lot of food.

Since elephants love sugarcane, a trainer may find it easy to train them with sugarcane.