Modals Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The room ................. accommodate up to ten people.

   can

   may

2. Where ................. I buy used computers?

   can

   may will

3. Who ................. solve this puzzle?

   can

   may Modals Exercise

4. I ................. be working late tonight.

- will
- can

5. If she left home at six, she ...................... be here soon.

- should
- ought to

Either could be used here

6. He said that he ...................... not come.

- will
- would
- may
7. We visited Malaysia last week. That ................. have been nice.

must

will

would

8. 'There is the doorbell.' 'I .................. go.'

will

may

can

9. It .................... rain anytime soon.

may

might
10. You .................... have waited for me.

need not

don't need

Either could be used here

11. Who .................... it be?

can

may

12. That .................... be James. He is in Mexico.

can't Modals Exercise

may not

Answers

The room can accommodate up to ten people.
Where can I buy used computers?
Who can solve this puzzle?
I will be working late tonight.
If she left home at six, she should / ought to be here soon.
He said that he would not come.
We visited Malaysia last week. That must have been nice.
‘There is the doorbell.’ ‘I will go.’
It might rain anytime soon.
You need not have waited for me.
Who can it be?
That can’t be James. He is in Mexico.