Fill in the blanks with an appropriate modal auxiliary verb.

1. You have been running for a long time. You ......................... be tired.
   - can
   - must

2. She has got lots of clients. She ......................... be a highly successful lawyer.
   - can
   - must

3. I can't find my purse now. Somebody ......................... have stolen it.
   - can
   - must
Modals Exercise

Either could be used here

4. 'Who .......................... it be?'

can

must

Either could be used here

5. It ............................. be the postman. He has already been.

must not cannot

Either could be used here

6. .......................... you lend me a few hundred Modals Exercise

dollars?

Can

Must

Either could be used here

7. I haven't decided what I am going to do during the summer holidays. I .......................... go to Goa.

may

might

Either could be used here

8. You ................................ reveal these secrets to anyone.

must not
Modals Exercise

9. We ............................. live without oxygen.

either cannot

either must not

either could be used here

10. Where ............................. she have gone?

either must either could either will

Modals Exercise

11. You ......................... have told me before taking my car.
   - can
   - must
   - may

12. You ......................... regret this.
   - will
   - can
   - must

Answers
1. You have been running for a long time. You must be tired.
2. She has got lots of clients. She must be a highly successful lawyer.
Modals Exercise

3. I can't find my purse now. Somebody must have stolen it.

4. 'Who can it be?'

5. It can’t be the postman. He has already been.

6. Can you lend me a few hundred dollars?

7. I haven’t decided what I am going to do during the summer holidays. I might go to Goa.

8. You must not reveal these secrets to anyone.

9. We cannot live without oxygen.

10. Where could she have gone?

11. You must have told me before taking my car.

12. You will regret this.