Modals Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate modal auxiliary verb.

1. He is the chief guest. He
   ........................................... to be here on time.

   can should must ought

2. ........................................ you lend me a few hundred dollars?

Please select 2 correct answers

   Can

   Could

   May Modals Exercise

3. It is dangerous to go out alone at night. You ........................ never do it.

4. If you start in the morning, you ........................ reach there by evening.
Modals Exercise

5. They sell the best pizza in town. You ……………………………… definitely try it.

should would could

6. If it rains, we ………………………………. get wet.

will would could

7. If she spoke a little French, she ………………………………. find a better job.

will Modals Exercise

8. He ........................................... be an introvert during his university days.

9. ........................................... you like to come with me?

© www.englishgrammar.org
10. We ..................................... never throw away anything useful.

- will
- should
- Either could be used here

11. I can’t find my phone. I ........................................ have lost it on the bus.

- could
- might
- must
- All of the above

12. Where ........................................ she have gone?
Modals Exercise

Please select 2 correct answers

- can
- could
- may
- would

Answers

He is the chief guest. He ought to be here on time.
Can / Could you lend me a few hundred dollars?
It is dangerous to go out alone at night. You should never do it.
If you start in the morning, you will reach there by evening.
They sell the best pizza in town. You should definitely try it.
If it rains, we will get wet.
If she spoke a little French, she could find a better job.
He used to be an introvert during his university days.
Would you like to come with me?
We will / should never throw away anything useful.
I can’t find my phone. I could / might / must have lost it on the bus.
Where could she have gone?