

Modals Exercise

Fill in the blanks with a modal auxiliary verb.

1. you mind babysitting my daughter for an hour?

Will

Would

Should

2. you do my homework?

Will

Shall

Should

3. You not read my letters again.

Modals Exercise

shall

would

could

4. He regret this.

shall

can

should

5. Where we go now?

shall

may

would

Modals Exercise

6. Children be taught to be kind.

would

shall

should

7. You rest for a while if you are tired.

may

can

Either could be used here

8. You have called me before coming.

Please select 2 correct answers

Modals Exercise

should

could

would

9. She asked if she leave early.

could

would

can

10. I work harder when I was younger.

could

might

Modals Exercise

can

11. You not provoke the dog.

must

may ought

12. I run a lot when I was at college.

used to use to

was used to

Modals Exercise

Answers

Would you mind babysitting my daughter for an hour?

Will you do my homework?

You shall not read my letters again.

He shall regret this.

Where shall we go now?

Children should be taught to be kind.

You can/may rest for a while if you are tired.

You should / could have called me before coming.

She asked if she could leave early.

I could work harder when I was younger.

You must not provoke the dog.

I used to run a lot when I was at college.