Fill in the blanks with a gerund or infinitive.

1. He has decided ………………………….. married.
   - getting
   - to get

2. I now regret ……………………….. what I did.
   - to do
   - doing

3. She doesn’t remember ………………………….
   - to meet
   - meeting

   Either could be used here
Non-finites Exercise

4. She has agreed to help us.

  helping to help

5. He denied stealing the money.

  stealing to steal

6. I can’t imagine him driving a car.

  driving
  to drive

7. It hurts me them suffering.
Non-finites Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>to see</th>
<th>seeing</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

8. He taught himself ..............................

driving

to drive

9. Although they spent a lot of money on advertising, they failed .............................. buyers.

to attract attracting

10. I daren’t ................................. him what happened.
Non-finites Exercise

11. You don’t need ……………………… for me.

12. You never cease ……………………………… me.

© www.englishgrammar.org
Non-finites Exercise

Answers

He has decided to get married.
I now regret doing what I did.
She doesn’t remember meeting him at the party.
She has agreed to help us.
He denied stealing the money.
I can’t imagine him driving a car.
It hurts me to see them suffering.
He taught himself to drive.
Although they spent a lot of money on advertising, they failed to attract buyers.
I daren’t tell him what happened.
You don’t need to wait for me.
You never cease to amaze me.