Nouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. I met two ...................... in the store.
   - women
   - females
   - Either could be used here

2. She took ............................ at my harmless remarks.
   - insult
   - offence
   - Either could be used here

3. If you are a ....................... , you may develop liver problems.
Nouns Exercise

4. He is collecting money for ..........................

Please select 2 correct answers

the poor poors
the poors
poor people

5. When I entered the room, the clock struck

.................................
nine
6. I was reading a ........................................ by Keats.

   poem

   poetry

7. We got off as there was no ................................. on the train.

   space

   room

   place

8. The government should have more schemes for ..........................
Nouns Exercise

Please select 2 correct answers

the blind blind people the blinds blinds

9. Have you got a lot of ........................................?

luggage luggages

Either could be used here

10. One of my ........................................lives in Mumbai.

friend
Nouns Exercise

11. She didn’t say ......................... anything something nothing

12. Do you like this ......................... of movies?
   kind kinds

Answers

I met two women in the store.
She took offence at my harmless remarks.
If you are a drunkard, you may develop liver problems.
He is collecting money for the poor / poor people.
When I entered the room, the clock struck nine.
I was reading a poem by Keats.
We got off as there was no room on the train.
The government should have more schemes for the blind / blind people.
Have you got a lot of luggage?
One of my friends lives in Mumbai.
She didn’t say anything.
Do you like this kind of movies?