Nouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. I met two ……………………. in the store.

   - women
   - females
   Either could be used here

2. She took ……………………… at my harmless remarks.

   - insult
   - offence
   Either could be used here

3. If you are a ……………………. , you may develop liver problems.
4. He is collecting money for ..........................
Please select 2 correct answers

the poor poors
the poors
poor people

5. When I entered the room, the clock struck ..........................

nine
Nouns Exercise

6. I was reading a ........................................ by Keats.

poem

poetry

7. We got off as there was no ................................ on the train.

space

room

place

8. The government should have more schemes for ..................................
Nouns Exercise

Please select 2 correct answers

- the blind
- blind people
- the blinds
- blinds

9. Have you got a lot of ...........................................

- luggage
- luggages

Either could be used here

10. One of my ............................................... lives in Mumbai.

- friend
Nouns Exercise

11. She didn’t say ............................... anything

12. Do you like this ........................... of movies?

Answers

I met two women in the store.
She took offence at my harmless remarks.
If you are a drunkard, you may develop liver problems.
He is collecting money for the poor / poor people.
When I entered the room, the clock struck nine.
I was reading a poem by Keats.
We got off as there was no room on the train.
The government should have more schemes for the blind / blind people.
Have you got a lot of luggage?
One of my friends lives in Mumbai.
She didn’t say anything.
Do you like this kind of movies?