Passive Voice Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. English ………………………………….. all over the world.

   spoken
   speak
   is spoken

2. The show ………………………………….. by millions of people.

   is watching
   is being watched
   has watched

3. Virtue …………………………………..
Passive Voice Exercise

respects

is respected

is respected

4. The gangster ………………………………… by the police in an encounter.

was killing

was killed

has killed

published

has published

was published
Passive Voice Exercise

6. The wounded man …………………………….. by the passersby.

- helped
- has helped
- was helped

7. The results ……………………………….. yet.

- haven't announced
- haven't been announced
- didn't announce

8. He ……………………………….. to return the books.

- told
Passive Voice Exercise

9. Answers ........................................................................................................ on both sides of the paper.

write

should write

should be written

10. She ...................................................... for her good looks.

is admiring

was admiring

was admired
Passive Voice Exercise

11. The walls .................................................

are painting

have painted

are being painted

12. He ...................................................... to the party.

was not inviting

was not invited

has not invited

Answers

English is spoken all over the world.
The show is being watched by millions of people.
Virtue is respected.
The gangster was killed by the police in an encounter.
His first novel was published in 1995.
Passive Voice Exercise

The wounded man was helped by the passersby.
The results haven’t been announced yet.
He was told to return the books.
Answers should be written on both sides of the paper.
She was admired for her good looks.
The walls are being painted.
He was not invited to the party.