

Phrasal verbs exercise

Complete the following sentences using appropriate phrasal verbs.

1. The offer was too good to

- pass off
- pass out
- pass up
- pass over

2. Let's our personal differences and work for the common good.

- put in
- put aside
- put up
- put off

3. I don't like it when you in front of your friends.

- put me out
- put me down
- put me away
- put me off

Phrasal verbs exercise

4. You will have to a lot of hard work if you want to be a successful entrepreneur.

- put up
- put in
- put out
- put away

5. She when she heard the news.

- passed off
- passed out
- passed away
- passed down

6. His grandfather last month.

- passed off
- passed away
- passed up
- passed over

7. Every month you must a small sum of money.

- put up

Phrasal verbs exercise

put aside

put off

put in

8. You need good communication skills to be able to put your message

out

over

across

9. The meeting has been put out

off

away

up

Answers

1. The offer was too good to pass up.
2. Let's put aside our personal differences and work for the common good.
3. I don't like it when you put me down in front of your friends.
4. You will have to put in a lot of hard work if you want to be a successful entrepreneur.
5. She passed out when she heard the news.
6. His grandfather passed away last month.

Phrasal verbs exercise

7. Every month you must put aside a small sum of money.
8. You need good communication skills to be able to put your message across.
9. The meeting has been put off.