

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate phrasal verb.

1. He was when I refused his request for a loan.

- put up
- put out
- put off

2. She has a claim for compensation.

- put out
- put up
- put in

3. I can no longer his intolerance.

- put off with
- put up with
- put in with

4. The mechanic's bill a large amount.

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

ran off to ran up ran up to

5. The Apex Court the verdict of the lower court.

set up

set aside

set out

6. During his speech, he his views at length.

set out

set up

set forth

7. Monsoon in India June.

sets out sets in sets off

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

8. We will be formidable if we one another.

- stand out
- stand by
- stand in

9. I have enough capital to in business.

- set me out
- set me up
- set me in

10. Who to do it?

- set you out
- set you on
- set you off

11. He always his opponents.

- runs off
- runs down
- runs out

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

12. They their departure for a week.

put up

put out

put off

Answers

1. He was put out when I refused his request for a loan.
2. She has put in a claim for compensation.
3. I can no longer put up with his intolerance.
4. The mechanic's bill ran up to a large amount.
5. The Apex Court set aside the verdict of the lower court.
6. During his speech, he set forth his views at length.
7. Monsoon in India sets in June.
8. We will be formidable if we stand by one another.
9. I have enough capital to set me up in business.
10. Who set you on to do it?
11. He always runs down his opponents.
12. They put off their departure for a week.