

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate preposition or adverb particle.

1. The woman broke in the middle of her speech.

- off
- out
- down

2. Please blow the candle.

- up
- out
- off

3. At last the storm has blown

- out
- off
- over

4. The opposition parties are planning to bring a No-Confidence Motion against the Prime Minister.

- up

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

out
forward

5. The accused said that he couldn't call
..... the whole events.

in
out
up

6. The workers have called the strike.

out
off
for

7. The investigators tried to call
..... crucial information from him.

up
forth
in

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

8. The terrorist's plan to blow
the bridge was foiled by police.

out
over
up

9. She is cut for a job of this kind.

up
out
in

10. If you work hard you will come
..... with flying colours.

out
off
up

11. The publishers are bringing
..... a new edition of this book.

out
up

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

on

12. The scheme fell for want of support.

through

out

off

Answers

1. The woman broke down in the middle of her speech.
2. Please blow out the candle.
3. At last the storm has blown over.
4. The opposition parties are planning to bring forward a No-Confidence Motion against the Prime Minister.
5. The accused said that he couldn't call up the whole events.
6. The workers have called off the strike.
7. The investigators tried to call forth crucial information from him.
8. The terrorist's plan to blow up the bridge was foiled by police.
9. She is cut out for a job of this kind.
10. If you work hard you will come off with flying colours.
11. The publishers are bringing out a new edition of this book.
12. The scheme fell through for want of support.