Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an adverb particle or a preposition which completes the sentence.

1. Don’t bring ………………………… that topic ever again.
   - in
   - out
   - up

2. As I didn’t get the correct answer, I did the sum ……………………………
   - up
   - out
   - over

3. He filled …………………………… the bottle.
Phrasal Verbs Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>out</th>
<th>up</th>
<th>in</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

4. You will not have any close friends if you have the habit of saying bad things about people behind their .................

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>head</th>
<th>eyes</th>
<th>back</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

5. She went ...................... talking about her illnesses.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>out</th>
<th>on</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Phrasal Verbs Exercise

6. It took us only about 10 minutes to put ................................ the tent.

7. The boy was giving ................................ leaflets to visitors.
Phrasal Verbs Exercise

8. I went to the teacher because I wanted to clear ................. some doubts.

out
up on

9. Every summer, fires break ......................... across many parts of the world.

up
out
in

10. The government should bring ...................... tax reforms.

up
Phrasal Verbs Exercise

11. You should get every detail _________________ on paper.

12. They have come _________________ with a brilliant idea to monetize their old farmhouse.
Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Answers

Don’t bring up that topic ever again.
As I didn’t get the correct answer, I did the sum over.
He filled up the bottle.
You will not have any close friends if you have the habit of saying bad things about people behind their back.
She went on talking about her illnesses.
It took us only about 10 minutes to put up the tent.
The boy was giving out leaflets to visitors.
I went to the teacher because I wanted to clear up some doubts.
Every summer, fires break out across many parts of the world.
The government should bring in tax reforms.
You should get every detail down on paper.
They have come up with a brilliant idea to monetize their old farmhouse.