

Prepositions exercise

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate preposition. This grammar exercise tests your ability to use prepositions that collocate with certain nouns, adjectives and verbs.

1. One must learn to adapt oneself new circumstances.

- with
- to
- for

2. You must adhere the truth.

- with
- to
- on

3. You have to finish the work within the time I have allotted you.

- with
- for
- to

4. I am grateful your help.

- with

Prepositions exercise

for
to

5. I am sorry my inability to accept your invitation.

with
to
for

6. The conversation reverted the original topic.

at
to
with

7. He succumbed his injuries.

for
with
to

8. The soldier yielded the enemy.

Prepositions exercise

at
with
to

9. This style of writing is characteristic ..... Dickens.

for
of
to

10. You must always be cautious giving offence.

with
for of

Answers

1. One must learn to adapt oneself to new circumstances.
2. You must adhere to the truth.
3. You have to finish the work within the time I have allotted to you.

Prepositions exercise

4. I am grateful for your help.
5. I am sorry for my inability to accept your invitation.
6. The conversation reverted to the original topic.
7. He succumbed to his injuries.
8. The soldier yielded to the enemy.
9. This style of writing is characteristic of Dickens.
10. You must always be cautious of giving offence.