

Prepositions or No Prepositions

Prepositions are omitted in some common expressions.

Fill in the blanks.

1. Let's your plans.

discuss discuss about discuss on

2. She a cousin of hers.

married

married with married to

3. The baby her mother.

resembles resembles to resembles with

4. I will never forget meeting her
..... afternoon.

on that that

Prepositions or No Prepositions

in that

5. The conference is Friday.

this

on this

Either could be used here

6. We met Friday in February.

one on one

at one

7. I was up night.

all

on all

in all night

8. Susie has agreed to come morning.

Monday

on Monday

Prepositions or No Prepositions

Either could be used here

9. He calls his mother three times
..... day.

- a
- in a
- on a

10. Private lessons cost 20 dollars hour.

- for an
- in an
- an

11. day is your interview?

- On what
- What
- Either could be used here

12. time does the train arrive?

- What

Prepositions or No Prepositions

At what

On what

Answers

1. Let's discuss your plans.
2. She married a cousin of hers.
3. The baby resembles her mother.
4. I will never forget meeting her that afternoon.
5. The conference is this Friday.
6. We met one Friday in February.
7. I was up all night.
8. Susie has agreed to come Monday / on Monday morning.
9. He calls his mother three times a day.
10. Private lessons cost 20 dollars an hour.
11. What / on what day is your interview?
12. What time does the train arrive?