Prepositions of Time Exercise

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate preposition.

1. I will be here ......................... next week.
   since for until

2. The school reopens ...................... Monday.
   on at
   in

3. I invite my friends to dinner ......................... Christmas eve.
   on
   in
   at

4. They are getting married ....................... the tenth of August.
   in
   on Prepositions of Time Exercise

5. They will be here from Monday ................................ Friday.

6. He hasn't worked .................................. he lost his job.

7. The work won't be complete ............................. Friday.

8. They are getting married .............................. the Prepositions of Time Exercise

9. It usually rains ....................... the month of July.

10. You must leave ...................... evening.

11. I waited for them ....................... evening and then I went home.
12. She was absent ........................ a week.

since
for until

Answers

1. I will be here until next week.
2. The school reopens on Monday.
3. I invite my friends to dinner on Christmas eve.
4. They are getting married on the tenth of August.
5. They will be here from Monday to Friday.
6. He hasn’t worked since he lost his job.
7. The work won’t be complete until Friday.
8. They are getting married in the spring.
9. It usually rains in the month of July.
10. You must leave by evening.
11. I waited for them until/till evening and then I went home.
12. She was absent for a week.