

Prepositions after particular words and expressions

Bad at

He is not bad at badminton.

Believe

When believe means accept as true it is used without a preposition.

I won't believe a word you say.

Believe in

Do you believe in ghosts?

Belong in / on (= have its place in / on)

Those books belong on the top shelf.

Belong to (= be a member of)

I belong to a local athletics club.

Blue with, red with, green with etc.

She went green with envy.

Clever at

She is not very clever at singing.

Congratulate somebody on something

Prepositions after particular words and expressions

I must congratulate you on your success.

Congratulate on / for doing something

He congratulated me on / for having won the first prize.

Crash into

The car crashed into a tree.

Depend on / dependent on

We might cancel the trip - it depends on the weather.

He is dependent on his parents.

Details of

Write now for details of our special offer.

Die of / from

He died of Malaria.

A week after the accident he died from his injuries.

Difficulty with something / difficulty in doing something

I have difficulty with my travel arrangements.

We had no difficulty in finding his address.

Prepositions after particular words and expressions

Disappointed with somebody

He is disappointed with his son.

Disappointed with / at / about something

I am disappointed with my performance.

Discussion about

We had a long discussion about philosophy.

Note that the verb discuss is used without a preposition.

Let's discuss your plans. (NOT Let's discuss about your plans.)