

Present Continuous vs. Present Perfect Continuous

Fill in the blanks with a present continuous or present perfect continuous tense form.

1. The children in the garden.

are playing

have been playing

2. She at that computer for hours.

is sitting

has been sitting

3. I English for six months.

am studying

have been studying

Present Continuous vs. Present Perfect Continuous

4. Rani with her parents at the moment.

is staying

has been staying

5. It

is staying

has been staying

6. She for her exams.

is preparing

has been preparing

7. I English for twelve

Present Continuous vs. Present Perfect Continuous

years.

am teaching

have been teaching

8. Somebody at the gate.

is waiting

has been waiting

9. She in this office since 2005.

is working

has been working

10. You your time.

Present Continuous vs. Present Perfect Continuous

are wasting

have been wasting

11. I for a call from my mother.

am waiting

have been waiting

12. She on a new project.

is working

has been working

Answers

The children are playing in the garden.

She has been sitting at that computer for hours.

Present Continuous vs. Present Perfect Continuous

I have been learning English for six months.

Rani is staying with her parents at the moment.

It is raining.

She is preparing for her exams.

I have been teaching English for twelve years.

Somebody is waiting at the gate.

She has been working in this office since 2005.

You are wasting your time.

I am waiting for a call from my mother.