

Present Or Past Participle

Fill in the blanks with a present or past participle form of the verb.

1. The house was in the quake.

damaged
damaging

2. It was in the storm.

breaking broken

3. The new office is going to be in June.

opening opened

4. You are fired firing

Present Or Past Participle

5. Who is that pretty girl in the corner?

sitting

sat

sit

6. Most of the people to the wedding didn't turn up.

inviting

invited

7. Your explanation made me very confusing

confused

8. The prisoner has been caught.

escaping

escaped

Present Or Past Participle

9. He lived alone, by everybody.

forgetting forgotten

10. The above point deserves special attention.

mentioning
mentioned

11. His idea seems exciting

excited

12. The children were terribly when they received the gifts.

exciting
excited

Present Or Past Participle

Answers

1. The house was damaged in the quake.
2. It was broken in the storm.
3. The new office is going to be opened in June.
4. You are fired.
5. Who is that pretty girl sitting in the corner?
6. Most of the people invited to the wedding didn't turn up.
7. Your explanation made me very confused.
8. The escaped prisoner has been caught.
9. He lived alone, forgotten by everybody.
10. The above mentioned point deserves special attention.
11. His idea seems exciting.
12. The children were terribly excited when they received the gifts.