

Present participle or past participle

Participles can be used as adjectives. Complete the following sentences using appropriate present participle or past participle forms.

1. The film was so that I fell asleep in the middle.

boring
bored

2. Would you like to come over? I'm so

boring
bored

3. The journey was quite

tiring
tired

4. Her behavior was quite disgusting

disgusted

Present participle or past participle

5. She left in a hurry because she was

.....

disgusting

disgusted

6. He everyone by turning up late.

annoyed

annoying

7. I was really by her story.

inspired

inspiring

8. Her story was so that they decided to publish it as a book.

inspiring

inspired

Present participle or past participle

9. He was very with his results.

pleased

pleasing

10. We were to hear that there had been an accident.

shocked

shocking

Answers

1. The film was so boring that I fell asleep in the middle.
2. Would you like to come over? I'm so bored.
3. The journey was quite tiring.
4. Her behavior was quite disgusting.
5. She left in a hurry because she was disgusted.
6. He annoyed everyone by turning up late.
7. I was really inspired by her story.
8. Her story was so inspiring that they decided to publish it as a book.

Present participle or past participle

9. He was very pleased with his results.

10. We were shocked to hear that there had been an accident.