

Present perfect tense exercise

Choose the correct time expression used with the present perfect tense.

1. We have lived in this city fifteen years.

- for
- since

2. She has not returned from school.

- yet
- just

3. Jane has gone out.

- just
- yet

4. You have not returned my money
.....

- already
- yet

Present perfect tense exercise

5. James has arrived in London.

already
yet

6. I have had a call from your mother.

just
yet

7. She has worked with me 2008.

since
for

8. I haven't seen him two weeks.

since
for

9. How have you known him?

Present perfect tense exercise

long much

10. I have completed my homework.

already
yet

Answers

1. We have lived in this city for fifteen years.
2. She has not yet returned from school.
3. Jane has just gone out.
4. You have not returned my money yet.
5. James has already arrived in London.
6. I have just had a call from your mother.
7. She has worked with me since 2008.
8. I haven't seen him for two weeks.
9. How long have you known him?

Present perfect tense exercise

10. I have already completed my homework.