

Present perfect tense exercise

Write sentences in present perfect tense using the words or phrases given in each question.

1. Jane from office.

returns
returned has returned

2. She a novel.

wrote
has written have written

3. He in ten films.

acted
has acted have acted

4. I not received your letter.

have has had

Present perfect tense exercise

5. I have never of that place.

hearing
heard hearded

6. She lost her money.

has
have had

7. Look, what John me!

gave has given
had given

8. Police 80 suspected drug traffickers in raids.

has arrested
have arrested
had arrested

Present perfect tense exercise

9. A 24-year old woman killed in an accident.

- have
- has
- has been

10. Honey, I my keys.

- have lossed
- have lost
- have losed

11. I six phone calls since lunchtime.

- have answered
- had answered
- has answered

Answers

1. Jane has returned from office.
2. She has written a novel.

Present perfect tense exercise

3. He has acted in ten films.
4. I have not received your letter.
5. I have never heard of that place.
6. She has lost her money.
7. Look, what John has given me!
8. Police have arrested 80 suspected drug traffickers in raids.
9. A 24-year old woman has been killed in an accident.
10. Honey, I have lost my keys.
11. I have answered six phone calls since lunchtime.

Notes

The present perfect tense form is made with has / have + past participle form of the verb. Questions are made by putting has / have before the subject. Negative forms are made by putting not after has / have.

He has returned the parcel. (Affirmative)

He has not returned the parcel. (Negative)

Has he returned the parcel? (Question)