Present Perfect vs. Simple Past

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Present Perfect</th>
<th>Simple Past</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
<td>I ..................... in Kerala when I was a child.</td>
<td>lived</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>She ......................... in the morning.</td>
<td>arrived</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>They ......................... their first baby.</td>
<td>just had</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Present Perfect vs. Simple Past

4. She ......................... ill for six months before she died.

- was
- has been

5. She ......................... ill for several months.

- was
- has been

6. I ......................... for several hours and then I went home.

- waited
- have waited
Present Perfect vs. Simple Past

7. I .................................... a horror movie last night.
   watched have watched

8. ....................................... him at the party yesterday?
   Have you met
   Did you meet

9. ....................................... anything interesting of late?
   Did you read
   Have you read

10. He can't walk because he .......................... his leg.
Present Perfect vs. Simple Past

broke has broken

11. I ......................... with an accident yesterday.

met
have met

12. The police ....................... the criminal.

arrested
have arrested

Answers

1. I lived in Kerala when I was a child.

2. She arrived in the morning.
Present Perfect vs. Simple Past

3. They have just had their first baby.

4. She was ill for six months before she died.

5. She has been ill for several months.

6. I waited for several hours and then I went home.

7. I watched a horror movie last night.

8. Did you meet him at the party yesterday?

9. Have you read anything interesting of late?

10. He can't walk because he has broken his leg.

11. I met with an accident yesterday.

12. The police have arrested the criminal.